

Music Educ (BMEd) with an Emphasis in Choral Music K-12

This program is offered by the Leigh Gerdine College of Fine Arts/ Department of Music and is only available at the St. Louis main campus.

Program Description

Webster offers two emphases in music education to meet or exceed the requirements of the State of Missouri for teacher certification, K-12. These programs are designed for students who wish to teach music in elementary or secondary school music programs.

The bachelor of music education is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM). The bachelor in music education is also accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP).

Learning Outcomes

A music education student will:

- Articulate a personal philosophy of music education and explain how that philosophy informs pedagogical practice.
- Analyze, devise and/or select instructional activities and materials (including repertoire) for being developmentally appropriate, relevant, culturally responsive/sustaining, and aligned with state and national music standards.
- Plan and execute instruction in a variety of formats and learning modes, accounting for a variety of student backgrounds, abilities, needs and interests.
- Demonstrate understanding of assessment, measurement and evaluation through the deploying of valid and reliable assessment tools.
- Demonstrate a broad and versatile set of musical skills in service of making music instruction relevant for all students.
- Use technology effectively to enhance instruction.
- Develop professional dispositions and skills (e.g., communication) appropriate to the practice of music education.

Admission and Audition Requirements

To be admitted as an undergraduate music major or music minor, applicants must complete an audition/interview with the music faculty and complete various diagnostic examinations. Auditions are arranged through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Specific information on the audition requirements for each music degree program is available from the department's website. Priority consideration for performance scholarships is given to students who complete all admission requirements before February 28 of the application year.
